Services Held For Maxine Curry Dunyon

23 Apr 1948

Funeral services for Maxine Curry Dunyon were conducted in the Heber First Ward chapel Monday afternoon. Bishop Heber M. Rasband was in charge.

Mrs. Dunyon was born in Heber City, March 11, 1912, a daughter of Nora Horner and George P. Curry. She spent all of her girlhood in Heber and graduated from the Wasatch high school. She was married to Charles Dunyon on June 1, 1929.

Survivors include 3 sons and 2 daughters, Mrs. Collen Sample, 18; Charles Lee, 16; Ann Curry, 8; Earl Max, 7; and Lewis Kay, 1 month; her mother, Mrs. Nora Giles, Heber.

The services were as follows: Prayer at the home, John M. Turner; prelude and postlude, Vera Rasband; prayer, Allen Curry; vocal solo, "Because", Rulon Huntington; speaker, Wm. J. Bond; remarks, Bishop Rasband; scriptural reading, Thelma Wootton; vocal duet, "A Perfect Day", Bert Dayton and Myrl Rasband; benediction, Arnold Johnson; graveside prayer, Joseph Olpin.

At the graveside in Heber City cemetery, Mrs. Wootton read the 23rd Psalm.

Mrs. Dunyon had been leader of the Teenagers at Tod Park and many of that group as well as relatives and friends attended the service.
